Sea-Land Chemical Co.
To Represent Italmatch Chemicals Spa Lubricant Additives in United States and Canada

Focus Includes Ketjenlube®, Dapramid®, Dapral®, and Dapraphos® Product Lines

Westlake, Ohio, October 14, 2015 – Sea-Land Chemical Co. has entered into a distributor agreement with Italmatch Chemicals S.p.A. for their lubricant product portfolio for the United States and Canada. Currently, Sea-Land Chemical Europe represents Italmatch Chemicals S.p.A. as sole distributor in the UK, Nordic region and the Netherlands.

The Italmatch Chemicals S.p.A. line includes Ketjenlube®, Dapramid®, Dapral® and specific phosphite products used in industrial lubricant applications (Dapraphos®).

“We are pleased to expand upon our existing relationship with Italmatch by offering their lubricant product portfolio in the United States and Canada,” said Joe Clayton, president of Sea-Land Chemical. “They continue to be the perfect business partner with their emphasis on technically oriented, high quality product technology.”

Italmatch has a long term view and approach in relation to both customers and suppliers, and has strength in commitment and capability to deliver the most demanding technical or logistic tasks, in conjunction with its major partners. Italmatch’s key customers are global multinationals, leader in lubricants, detergents, oil and gas, engineering thermoplastics and agrochemicals.

“Italmatch and Sea-Land’s goals are aligned as we are both focused on delivering informed interaction with our customers as part of our global sales expansion,” said Norberto Gatti, lubricants global sales and marketing director for Italmatch. “Sea-Land is a great partner with Pan-American coverage of the market, technical knowledge and logistical support.”

Founded in Cleveland, Ohio in 1964, Sea-Land Chemical Co. is an employee-owned distributor of specialty chemicals.
